No 718 in Vernacular file

Sub Division Office, Sagar.
Dated 30th June 1894.

To

The Deputy Commissioner
Shimoga.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Ganapathi Devaru Temple at Sagar, which is under the management of the Muzrai Department has no proper Dharmadarsees appointed to manage its affairs. It has a fixed annual income of Rupees 411/- from Ready Inam, and lands in its Khata. Besides this, the devotees residing in the surrounding villages pay at annas 8 per "Nija" of Supare (20 maunds) grown in their gardens for extraordinary expenses, such as repairs of Temple, Annual Car festival &ca. The fixed income is spent for the ordinary expenses, pay of Temple servants &ca. as sanctioned

sanctioned in the Tasdik Pattee.

2. For want of proper arrangements the contributions which the devotees have bound themselves to pay are not regularly collected, and no account of their expenditure is maintained. A single gentleman under the designation of Agent is appointed to manage the temple affairs, who is unable to conduct them satisfactorily. Simply, the influence of one individual is not sufficient in such matters. It is therefore necessary to appoint a Committee of Dharmadarasees to administer affairs of this temple.

3. The devotees themselves are anxious that some such arrangement should be made, and they have submitted certain proposals through the Amildar, among others, recommending to appoint a number of Dharmadarasees and Secretaries. I think their proposals which are submitted herewith are too complicated and at the same time at variance with the standing orders of the Muzrey Department. What I would suggest is that a select number of gentlemen interested in the Temple should be nominated as Dharmadarasees, whose duty shall be to see that the Temple funds are properly administered. They should further see that private contributions are regularly collected and credited to Muzrey funds and that they are not spent at the will and pleasure of the Manager as at present.

4. With these suggestions I submit the names of the following gentlemen, who are selected by the devotees themselves for the Office of Dharmadarasees. I may add that these gentlemen are devotees of the Temple and take much interest in properly conducting a its affairs.

5. The Vernacular file of correspondence is submitted herewith for reference.

1 Mr. Yagnana Rangappa, Merchant and Sowkar, Sagar.

2 " Kauley Devappa, Sowkar and Landholder, Sagar.

3 " Banavasi Venkata Rao, Pleader and Landholder, Sagar.

4 " Soppina Thimmappa, Landholder Sagar.

5 " Sambeau Devappa, Landholder Bhimanhour.

6 " Puttappa, Landholder and Sowcar &c

Dated 9th July 1894

No. 34.

To

The Deputy Commissioner
Shimoga District

Sir,

With reference to your docket No. 50 of the 4th Instant requesting to furnish further particulars as to how the devotees of the Ganapathi Temple at Sagar have bound themselves to pay contributions, I have the honor to state that almost all the people interested in this temple reside in the villages attached to Sydoo Seemey Magnies, namely, Yalagalaley, Alwadee, Tadakody, Kalasa and Manchasale. They have executed a document called Dharmapatra in favor of the Temple binding themselves to contribute annually towards the car festival and other expenses at 8 annas per Nija "(20 maunds) of Suparee grown on their gardens. Besides this, some of the devotees residing in the Yalagalaley Seemey pay at 4 pies per annum per one "Varaha" (4 Rupees) of Kandayam paid by individual ryot to Government.

2. The Nagadeys or other leading personages collect these contributions but seldom render proper account as to how they are spent. These being voluntary contributions the Muzrai Department do not seem to have interfered in their collection or expenditure. As the contributors and other leading persons interested in the Temple have now come forward to place the matter in the hands of the Muzrai Department, I think there is no objection to treat this source of income in the same manner as other items of Temple funds.

I have &c.

Sd/ D. Narasimha Rao.

Sagar.
